If representation is granted to a legal entity, its legal representative will attend the meeting; alternatively, the legal entity may only delegate one of its own employees or collaborators.

In view of the persistence of the Covid-19 epidemic in Italy, the emergency rules that have in various ways imposed restrictions on the physical presence of several people in the same place have also been extended to 2022, and in accordance with the provisions of Article 106, paragraph 2 of Decree-Law No. 18 of 17 March 2020 laying down "Measures to strengthen the National Health Service and to provide economic support for families, workers and businesses in connection with the Covid-19 emergency", converted with amendments by Law No. 27 of 24 April 2020 and as most recently extended by paragraph 1 of Article 3 of Decree-Law No. 228 of 30 December 2021, converted with amendments by Law No. 15 of 25 February 2022 (the "Cura Italia Decree"), those entitled to vote (or their respective proxies) will attend the Shareholders' Meeting exclusively by remote attendance through means of telecommunication (video conference), at the details that will be provided to all persons entitled in various capacities to attend the Shareholders' Meeting, as specified in the notice of calling of the Shareholders' Meeting itself.

In order to receive the access codes to the Company's platform for attending the Shareholders' Meeting by video conference, the proxy must arrange for the original paper copy of the proxy to reach the Company by registered letter or courier at the following address: Via Pietro Tamburini 1, 25136 – Brescia or, if signed by the delegating party with a digital signature, at the Company's certified e-mail address: amministrazione@legal.intred.it.
